This fantastic Rajasthan Camel Safari Tour is a true adventure experience with a wealth of sights and cultural exuberance India is famous for. Combining superior accommodation and an adventurous 6 day tented camel safari, over 17 days you will visit significant forts, palaces, and temples, beautiful local villages and desert oases from Delhi, through Mandawa, Bikaner, Jaisalmer, Jodhpur and Jaipur. This tour is an amazing combination of culture, history and adventure promising to leave lasting impressions.

Your journey begins in Delhi where you will spend two nights and do tours of the Old and New cities. From Delhi you will be driven to Mandawa in the Shewhawati region known for its colorful frescoes and painted havelis (mansions). You will have time to explore this storybook town before driving further west to Bikaner and then to Jaisalmer where you will begin your 6 day camel safari, camping amongst the dunes and beautiful oases of the Rajasthan desert. You will visit traditional villages, dine in the dunes and see the most stunning scenery. Your camel safari concludes on return to Jaisalmer where you will enjoy a city tour. Further along to Jodhpur you will spend a night before taking a sightseeing tour of Mehrangarh Fort and Jaswant Thanda memorial. Your final destination before returning to Delhi is Jaipur. Here you will visit the Amber Fort where you will be treated to an elephant ride (or a jeep ride) to the entrance of the fort. En-route you will see the 'Palace of Winds', and an afternoon tour takes you to the City Palace and Jantar Mantar. This tour delivers a delightful mix of history, vibrance and adventure at every turn in this wonderful pocket of Mother India.
