Rajasthan, with its inexhaustible historical wealth and brilliant architecture is arguably the most colourful State in India. This tour combines India's most iconic sights, the vibrant city of Delhi and the famed Taj Mahal in Agra, with the striking and exuberant Rajasthan region. Accommodated in superior style hotels you will be surprised and delighted with its history and vibrance at every turn in this wonderful pocket of Mother India.

Your colourful journey begins in Delhi with a tour of the old and new cities. You will then travel to Agra where you will visit the magnificent Taj Mahal at sunrise, undoubtedly one of the showpieces of India. You will then travel to Jaipur, the exuberant capital city of the Mogul empire in the 16th century. Here you will dine at an Indian home, visit Amber Fort, the City Palace, and Hawa Mahal. This town is a cultural hub for crafts, arts and traditional dance. Your next stop is Jodhpur with its unique blue architecture, you can enjoy an afternoon at leisure or opt for a village jeep safari to nearby Vishnoi villages. You will then travel further west through the Thar Desert with stunning scenery to Jaisalmer and Bikaner. Jaisalmer is home to a beautiful old city, and Jain temples. Bikaner is renowned for its arts and for having the best riding camels in the world! Here you will enjoy a horse-cart ride through the old city and visit the majestic Junagarh Fort. Your final stop is Mandawa, a quaint village in the Shekhawati region, featuring some of the finest frescoes and painted havelis (mansions) in the region.

This colourful and culturally rich tour gives you the true essence of India and her rich Rajasthani history. Magnificent forts, mansions and temples, the friendly, charming people and truly inspiring scenery will leave lasting memories.
