This fantastic "Classic India" tour is the pinnacle of what India is famous for... it's historical Taj, its majestic temples and grand forts. Experience this wealth of sights, cultural exuberance, and diversity of terrain while staying in superior accommodation taking in the warmth, hospitality and tradition of its people. This exciting, mystical country has so much to offer!

Your tour begins on arrival into Delhi where you will spend the night before enjoying a city tour of the old and new areas. You will take in sights such as Red Fort, Jama Masjid, Qatab Minar, Hamayun's Tomb, Parliament House and India Gate. The next day you will be transferred by road to Jaipur. Here you will be taken in royal style on elephant back to Amber Fort, before an afternoon visit to the city palace, in the heart of the old city. You will also visit Jantar Mantar, and the landmark Pink City, Hawa Mahal. Day 5 sees you depart for Agra, home to the spectacular Taj Mahal. Enroute you will visit Fatehpur Sikri, an abandoned city built in 1569, where you will see The Gate of Victory, the tomb of Salim Chisti and other sites which mix Islamic architecture with Hindu and Jain decorative art. Your time in Agra will be spent visiting the extravagant Taj Mahal, as well as Agra Fort on the banks of the Yamuna River. On Day 7 you will take a short train ride to Khajuraho home to the Khajuraho Temples, the largest group of medieval Hindu and Jain temples, famous for their erotic sculptures. After an overnight you will board a flight to Varanasi, the religious capital of India, where in the evening you will witness Ganga Aarti, a colourful daily religious ceremony. Next day you will board an early morning river cruise on the sacred River Ganges to watch the sunrise over the city. You will also visit Vishwanath Temple, and Durga Temple before it is time to transfer to the airport to board a flight for your onward journey.
